SAVING TIDE LANDS.

Ten Acres Will Be Used by Portland Cordage Company.

Seattle, March 21.—It is probable that within a week or so the contract for filling in 10 acres of tide lands at Smith cove, north of the Great Northern dock, will be awarded by the Portland Cordage Company. Bids on the work were opened several days ago, the Seattle Bridge Company's offer to do the work for $45,000 being the lowest, and those who are conversant with the nature of the proposed improvements state that this bid will undoubtedly be accepted by the Portland concern.

It is the intention of the Portland house to construct a big cordage and rope plant on the reclaimed land and the fact that sufficient property must be filled in, according to the contract, within 60 days to allowed of the building of the plant, looks as if the Oregon concern was going to waste no time in the work of construction.

About 200,000 cubic yards of material will be used to fill in the land to the same level as the reclaimed lands at the south of the city. The necessary material will either be pumped or secured by the use of a suction dredge from Smith cove or else will be sluiced down from the company's land on the hillside adjacent to the property. A year is the limit in which the entire work is to be completed. The 60-day clause applies only to a portion of the land sufficient for the construction of the building.

CHINESE STORE RAIDED.

Landlady Attaches Goods of Pig-tail Merchants.

San Francisco, March 21.—Owing to his inability to settle with his creditors, among whom is an irate landlady, Kwong On Lung, head of the firm of Kwong On Lung & Co., 725 Jackson street, left town hurriedly about a month ago, leaving behind a large stock of rice, nuts, oil and other Chinese delicacies.

In figuring up her accounts against Kwong, Anna Moore, owner of the property at 725 Jackson street, found she had gotten the best of her by $189. The store was locked up, and was stocked with all varieties of goods. Miss Moore thought that she might square matters by claiming them, but was informed that the only way in which she might claim her property would be to have the sheriff take charge of the stock of goods.

Accordingly yesterday morning the building was proceeded to unceremoniously thrown open the doors and pile the merchandise out on the street.

Before two boxes had been carried out Chinese of all sizes and descriptions poured in from all directions. As each load of stuff was taken to the street the crowds thronged about it and gazed longingly on the delicacies. Some even went so far as to grab boxes of noodles and rice when the officers' backs were turned. The police gave chase, however, and each time locked up the offenders on a charge of petty larceny.

By the time the store was cleared out several arrests were made. One

Chinaman, about 80 years of age, was caught running down Jackson street dragging a bag of rice. He was easily overtaken and booked with the rest.

Strange to say, when the last arrest had been made and the book was gone over, it was found that in every case the prisoner had given the name of "Sing."

According to the stories told by his neighbors, Kwong had a rather poor standing in the Chinese Bradstreets. Kwong, they say, owes money to every one that he knows in Chinatown, and they universally say "Him no good."

A tall Chinaman with a black eye and a bright emerald sweater vouchsafed the information that Kwong had gone "catchem Fresno;" that he has friends there, and will stay in hiding until his debts are outlawed.

Among the goods that were seized yesterday was a valuable stock of preserved ginger and spices.

MORE RIOTS.

Disturbances of strikers are not nearly as grave as an individual disorder of the system. Overwork, loss of sleep, nervous tension will be followed by utter collapse, unless a reliable remedy is immediately employed. There's nothing so efficient to cure disorders of the Liver and Kidneys as Electric Bitters. It's a wonderful tonic, and effective nerve and the greatest all around medicine for run down systems. It dispels Nervousness, Rheumatism and Neuralgia and expels Malaria germs. Only 50c, and satisfaction guaranteed by Chas. Rogers, druggist.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Oswald West was in the city yesterday from Salem.

Will Young has returned from a trip to San Francisco.
